

Our Community Project

Ann Martin has been Chair of Our Community Project (OCP) for several years but she has been on the committee, and Board for over fifteen years. She is a long-term resident of Port Kembla, an elected Councillor of Wollongong City Council, a statutory planner working with councils across NSW, an artist, poet, and small business owner.

Ann has lived and worked in regional NSW and been a strong advocate for the communities of the Illawarra, and the arts and cultural development sectors especially at a local, regional, state, and national level.
