

Our Community Project

Blake Osmond is a commercial lawyer, consultant and public policy advisor, with experience across government and the private sector.

Currently a Manager in PwC's Integrated Infrastructure team, Blake has helped deliver some of Australia's most significant transport, social housing and renewable energy projects.

Prior to becoming a lawyer, Blake was an Advisor to senior members of the New South Wales Parliament. Over 5 years, Blake provided political, policy, media and strategic advice across the Transport, Infrastructure, Roads, Maritime, Freight, Police, Justice, Education and Training portfolios.

Blake has an Executive Masters of Public Administration from the London School of Economics, and a Bachelor of Laws and a Bachelor of Social Research and Policy from UNSW.

Blake is currently the Vice President of the Board at Bellambi Neighbourhood Centre.