2016-2018 Studied Advanced Diploma in Transpersonal Art Therapy at the Sydney College of Complimentary Medicine.

I now practice part time in this field.

I live to encourage myself and others to know ourselves through creativities.

Here lives my great belief in Culture Bank Wollongong.

It is vital that we express our life experiences. To encourage and support each other. Whether it be through drawing, painting writing, dance, music composition or theatre performance. Culture Bank Wollongong exists to enliven and uplift our community through supporting the arts. Which means well-being for both audience and performers.
